C. J. Henderson : Encyclopedia of Science Fiction Movies: From 1897 to the Present (Facts on File Film Reference Library) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Encyclopedia of Science Fiction Movies: From 1897 to the Present (Facts on File Film Reference Library):

This work provides an A-Z historical review of science fiction in the cinema from the earliest experiments in silent film in the 1890s to the most recent blockbusters. Each of the 1300 entries includes the film's vital statistics - title, year released, director, screenwriter, cast, studio, and running time - along with a summary of the film and a critique. Select entries contain additional information, such as anecdotes on the making of the film provided by the cast and crew. It includes a list of science fiction films that have been nominated for an Academy Award - including those that have won the coveted Oscar. The reference also contains an interview with Frank Herbert, author of Dune, regarding the film adaptation of his landmark novel.
