SilverstoneAlthough nothing like Alcalay's multivolume Hebrew-English dictionary, the Ben-Yehuda packs a good punch, with 30,000 entries crammed into a small paperback. Although this is not the most up-to-date dictionary, it is still quite extensive. The English word is listed with the Hebrew equivalents, without much extra information.This is a fantastic dictionary for students and easy to carry around.

Slight shelf wear. Pages are clean and binding is tight.
