From American Alliance Of Museums : Everyone's Welcome before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Everyone's Welcome:

A manual for museum professionals and designers to help them better understand the requirements for the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). It details ADA requirements and provides recommendations for voluntary compliance with the law to ensure that museums communicate effectively with all visitors. The recommendations provided in this manual address concerns for visitors with a range of physical and learning disabilities.
