

[Free] Gardening All-in-One For Dummies

Gardening All-in-One For Dummies

The National Gardening Association, Bob Beckstrom, Karan Davis Cutler, Kathleen Fisher, Phillip Giroux, Judy Glattstein, Michael MacCaskey, Bill Marken, Charlie Nardozzi, Sally Roth, Marcia Tatroe, Lance Walheim, Ann Whitman

*ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#193010 in BooksColor: Paperback, 2003-02-28Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 9.25 x 1.62 x 7.451, 2.52
#File Name: 0764525557744 pages | File size: 50.Mb

The National Gardening Association, Bob Beckstrom, Karan Davis Cutler, Kathleen Fisher, Phillip Giroux, Judy Glattstein, Michael MacCaskey, Bill Marken, Charlie Nardozzi, Sally Roth, Marcia Tatroe, Lance Walheim, Ann Whitman : Gardening All-in-One For Dummies before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Gardening All-in-One For Dummies:

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Wow! Seriously everything you ever wanted to know about gardening.By A. ShafferI realize this BIG book is probably just an overview for people who have been gardening for years but for a beginning gardener, it's fantastic! Lots of great information, tips, ideas. I thought I was buying a book on vegetable gardening but, while that's thoroughly covered, there's also TONS of information on flower gardening and maintenance (month by month) as well as an entire section on roses. Great book!2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A Big Help for the GREEN THUMBS the not so GREEN THUMBS !By gelatojunk From What I've had the chance to look over and read this book I think it's going to be quite informative and enjoyable to get into and try some of the new idea's they've put in there. I'm glad for all the pictures and illustrations that are in the book. The main thing I can say about this purchase is:I'm glad I now own this book and that it's now in our house.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Helpful Guide without the Pretense!By Angela H-FVery helpful guide. The descriptions of the recommended techniques for caring for all kinds of perennials and annuals are very helpful and are accompanied by helpful illustrations. The book deconstructs the jargon that keeps newbies from becoming experts. I'm thankful to have found this gem.

"God almighty first planted a garden: and, indeed, it is the purest of human pleasures." --Sir Francis Bacon National surveys show that gardening has become the most popular, least exclusive hobby nationwide. From the balconies of Manhattan to the patios of Malibu to the backyards of Chicago, anybody with a few square feet of earth is doing their best to make their little corner of the world more gracious and beautiful. And the best thing is, you really don't have to be born with a green thumb to give life to a glorious garden. Anybody can do it with a little coaching. Which is where Gardening All-in-One For Dummies comes in. Puzzled by pruning? Baffled by bulbs? Can't tell a hosta from a hyacinth? Dont worry! This all-in-one reference delivers the know-how you need to transform your little patch of the outdoors into a blooming paradise. Drawing upon the expertise of the National Gardening Association, it gets you up to speed on: Basic gardening skillsfrom understanding your microclimate to using gardening tools to managing pests and common plant diseases How to design, plan and build a garden landscape that reflects your unique sense of style Selecting, planting and maintaining stunning roses Building a raised bed for your perennials and making them bloom in any climate Choose, grow and maintain annuals From amaryllis to spider dahlias to wood tulipscoaxing beauty from homely bulbs Enjoying natures bounty by growing you own vegetables and herbs A veritable encyclopedia of gardening, this Gardening All-in-One For Dummies is an indispensable resource for novices and experienced gardeners alike. It brings together between the covers of a single volume seven great books covering: Gardening Basics Garden Design Roses Perennials Annuals Bulbs Vegetables and Herbs Your one-step guide to a beautiful garden, Gardening All-in-One For Dummies shows you how to experience the purest of human pleasures in your own backyard.

From the Back CoverSeven books in one deliver the dirt on gardening success Your one-stop guide to a beautiful garden no experience required! Puzzled by pruning? Anguishing over landscaping? Cant tell a hosta from a hyacinth? Dont worry! This all-in-one reference delivers all the know-how you need to transform an ordinary backyard into a glorious garden. Drawing on the expertise of the National Gardening Association, this garden primer shows you how to have fun playing in the dirt and start smelling the roses. The Dummies Way Coverage of the essentials and beyond Explanations in plain English "Get in, get out" information Nifty navigational aids, such as thumbtabs and icons Tear-out cheat sheet A dash of humor and fun About the AuthorNational Gardening Association: The National Gardening Association is the largest member-based, nonprofit organization of home gardeners in the United States. For more information about the National Gardening Association, write to 180 Flynn Ave., Burlington, VT 05401 USA; or visit its Web site at www.garden.org. Bob Beckstrom, coauthor of Landscaping For Dummies, is a licensed general contractor. He lives in northern California and enjoys building things, spending time outdoors, and sharing what hes learned with other people. Bob has taught adult courses in house building and remodeling at The Owner Builder Center in Berkeley, California; and has written and edited extensively on home-improvement topics, including Decks Patios For Dummies. Karan Davis Cutler, coauthor of Herb Gardening For Dummies, is a former magazine editor and newspaper columnist and the author of seven other garden books. She publishes regularly in horticultural magazines and is an eight-time winner of the Quill Trowel Award from the Garden Writers Association of America. Kathleen Fisher, coauthor of Herb Gardening For Dummies, is former editor of The American Gardener, published by the American Horticultural Society. A longtime newspaper reporter, she now works as a freelance writer and editor. Phillip Giroux, coauthor of Landscaping For Dummies, graduated from the University of Arizona with a degree in landscape architecture and ornamental horticulture. He established his landscape designing and building firm in 1978, and Philip is responsible for numerous large-scale projects, such as the Los Angeles County Museum of Arts Sculpture and Japanese Pavilion Garden. Phillip has served as L.A. Chapter President for the California Landscape Contractors Association and is a member of the Royal Horticulture Society. Judy Glattstein, author of Flowering Bulbs For Dummies as well several other gardening books, is a garden consultant. She lectures extensively across the United States and abroad, and has twice spoken for the Royal Horticultural Society at their Great Autumn Show in London. Mike MacCaskey, coauthor of Gardening For Dummies, received a bachelor of science degree in ornamental horticulture from California State Polytechnic University, San Luis Obispo in 1976. He served as Editor-in-Chief of Vermontbased National Gardening Magazine, and his magazine writing has been honored by both the Western Magazine Publishers Association and the Garden Writers of America. Bill Marken, author of Annuals For Dummies, Container Gardening For Dummies, and coauthor of Gardening For Dummies, is the editor of Rebeccas Garden

Magazine, a publication from Hearst Magazines Enterprises based on a popular television show. Bill served as Editor-in-Chief of Sunset, the Magazine of Western Living, from 1981 to 1996. Earlier in his career, he wrote for the magazines garden section, pitched in on several editions of the bestselling Western Garden Book, and generally nurtured his interests in subjects related to gardening, landscaping, travel, and other aspects of the good life in the West. Charlie Nardozi, author of Vegetable Gardening For Dummies, graduated from the University of Vermont in 1981 with a degree in plant and soil science. Charlie then spent three years in the Peace Corps in Thailand, helping farmers grow everything from rice to garlic, chili peppers, and mangoes. He returned to the United States and received a masters degree in education, again from the University of Vermont. After working as a landscaper, he served as a horticulturist at the National Gardening Association for more than 10 years. Sally Roth, contributor to Landscaping For Dummies, is a lifelong naturalist, gardener, and writer. Her writing credits include books and magazine articles for several publishers. When she isnt digging in her garden or out walking in the woods looking at birds, Sally listens to blues and folk music, reads, and plays a mean game of Scrabble. Marcia Tatroe, author of Perennials For Dummies, is a garden designer, lecturer, and writer whos been fortunate to have the opportunity to live and garden in areas as diverse as Highland, California; Tacoma, Washington; Lompoc, California; the Netherlands; and south-central England. Marcia, also a former Master Gardener of several years for Colorado State Universitys Cooperative Extension Program, says that tending the garden is one of her greatest passions, and she hopes that its contagious. Lance Walheim, author of Roses For Dummies and Lawn Care For Dummies, and coauthor of Landscaping For Dummies, graduated from the University of California, Berkeley, with a degree in botany. Shortly after, he started writing and researching books on gardening and since has authored or contributed to over 40 titles. He also has served as a writer for Sunset and National Gardening magazines. Ann Whitman, author of Organic Gardening For Dummies and Trees Shrubs For Dummies, earned a bachelor of science degree in plant and soil science at the University of Vermont and went on to complete a master of arts in landscape design in Massachusetts. Shes been tending her own patches of soil for more than 25 years.