AndersonGrand Teton National Park (National Geographic Trails Illustrated Map) Map Folded Map, January 1, 2008 $10.65 and Yellowstone National Park (National Geographic Trails Illustrated Map) Map Folded Map, January 1, 2012 $10.65Save the content these maps are identical in size each being 25 x 37 YPK scale is 1:16,720 1 inch = 2 mi. with 100 contour level. GTNP scale is 1:80,000 1 inch = 1.3 mi 100 contour level. These maps are printed on waterproof, tear-resistant paper. YPK is split in half (north / south) with a generous overlap. Robust legend includes trail summaries including length, elevation gain, hiking time and difficulty. Various other panels describe wildlife, thermal areas and backcountry hiking. GTNP has the entire area on one side (including Jackson Hole) the reverse is a detailed map of the east side of the park with a scale of 1 inch=.5 mi. from Granite Canyon to Leigh Lake.As mentioned elsewhere we are not of the hiking ilk, other than the short easy 1-2 hour jaunts to get away from the parking lots. In terms of general orientation, finding locations mentioned in other tomes, and getting around these are essential maps. In terms of a hiking guide with trailheads and enough detail to use in the field I fear these would be lacking. Used in combination with National Geographic Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks Road Guide: The Essential Guide for Motorists I plan them to use them as my principal navigation tools.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Wait for the 2015 Version if You CanBy ALSThe National Geographic maps are great for hiking and planning trips. Because Grand Teton is relatively small the section with some of the most popular hikes is 1:31,680. the rest is 1:80,000. One warning, though, is that National Geographic has released an updated version from the 2008. I needed it right away so ordered the 2008 version because the 2015 version was back-ordered. If you have the time, wait for the 2015 version.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Get it!By Christian BThis map was really nice. I wish they would put distances in, but I really liked the clear camping zones posted. We used this while hiking the TCT, and was great to pull out at breaks and evenings to view our progress.Tip: If flying in to backpack, bear spray at the Craig Thompson Wilderness center was like $32 USD so 1/2 of REI's cost and comes with case.Hike on!
