Wrong book.By Andrew V.Wish I could give it 0 stars, but I'm stuck with 1 star. It got here on time, good packaging, but when I opened it, It was a 2005 Guinness World Records, not a 2004! I was so mad!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy KhalidExcellent

The all-new 2004 edition of the Guinness World Records book contains more than 700 new records, 10 full-page feature spreads, and the most photographs in any Guinness World Records book in history! Popular categories in this year's edition include Sport, Science and Technology, Humans, Feats of Engineering and more. At 288 pages and a beautiful blue holographic cover, the 2004 edition will be a holiday hit with kids and adults alike. Check out some of the cool records highlighted in the 2004 edition: TALLEST ROLLER COASTER Top Thrill Dragster, a hydraulically launched out-and-back 'strata-coaster' at Cedar Point, Sandusky, Ohio, USA, reaches a height of 420 feet and has a maximum design speed of 120 mph. It opened in May 2003 and cost $25 million. HIGHEST PAID TV GUEST STAR The world record for the highest amount paid to an actor to guest star on a TV show is Matthew Perry, who was paid $765,900 for appearing on FOX's Ally McBeal (USA). The 2-hour episode was broadcast on April 15, 2002 and Perry played the character of Todd Merrick. OLDEST LIVING INDIVIDUAL TREE The oldest living individual tree is the ancient Bristlecone Pine "Methuselah" (Pinus longaeva) which is 4,733 years old. It was found by Dr. Edmund Schulman (USA) in the White Mountains, California, USA and dated in 1957. SMALLEST DOG The world's smallest dog living is Whitney, a Yorkshire terrier who measured 3 inches to the shoulder and 9.5 inches from nose to tail-tip on November 26, 2002. Whitney is owned by Christopher and Patricia Sheridan of Shoeburyness, Essex, UK. FASTEST ASCENT OF MOUNT EVEREST (SOUTH SIDE) Lakpa Gelu Sherpa (Nepal) made a successful ascent of Mt Everest in 10 hr 56 min 46 sec on 26 May 2003, the fastest ever climb from base camp to the summit of the world's tallest mountain. HIGHEST PRONE SKATEBOARD SPEED The highest speed recorded on a skateboard is 78.37 mph in a prone position by Roger Hickey, 32, on a course near Los Angeles, California, USA on March 15, 1990. YOUNGEST SOLO TRANSATLANTIC SAILOR Sebastian 'Seb' Clover (UK, b. 15 January 1987) sailed across the Atlantic Ocean single handedly between Santa Cruz de Tenerife, Canary Islands, and English Harbour, Antigua Barbuda, aged 15 years 362 days, from 19 December 2002 to 12 January 2003.
