Neeli Cherkovski : Hank. La vida de Charles Bukowski (Spanish Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Hank. La vida de Charles Bukowski (Spanish Edition):

Los amantes de Bukowski estan de enhorabuena, pues, de la mano de Neeli Cherkovski, podran recorrer la tumultuosa vida del autor, Hank para los amigos, ese enfant terrible de la literatura norteamericana. Esta biografía traza un vívido retrato del creador de Henry Chinaski, su alter ego y protagonista de novelas tan míticas como Cartero, Factotum, Mujeres, La senda del perdedor, y Hollywood. Así, Cherkovski nos presenta al bardo de perdedores y miserables, al cronista despiadado de Los Angeles, al narrador que carga su pluma con cinismo y rebeldía, habitual de baruchos y de las ventanillas de apuestas de los hipodromos, que mereciera ya una biografía cinematográfica firmada por Barbet Schroeder. / This biography traces the life of Henry Chinaski's creator, introducing us to the bard of the miserable and the wretched, the merciless chronicler of Los Angeles, the narrator who carries his pen with cynicism and defiance, to the patron saint of those who drink and of the drinkers who write. We begin with the childhood of this survivor, born into an oppressive family in 1920 in Andernach, Germany. We then experience his adolescence, during which Bukowski suffered the worst case of acne Los Angeles had ever seen, and finally adulthood, characterised by heavy drinking, misogyny, rebelliousness and a rejection of the mainstream.
