Who knew that...?By CBP the bookwormAn amusing and relaxed read, showcasing several lesser-known Hollywood jobs, the people who work in them, and how they got where they are. Basic on-set vocab is included at the beginning of each interview, the relevant words are italicised along the way (just in case you forget that the word is defined for you) and the low-key style of the interviews rings through clearly.And who knew that Carol Ann Susi (who plays Howard Wolowitz's mother on The Big Bang Theory) is so pretty??? Not to mention amusing - as she says, "if you weigh 5lbs more than Nicole Kidman, you're a character actress not a star".0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Okay for what it isBy Voracious readerFirst of all, I didn't recognize most of the people interviewed so it wasn't really enlightening for me. But it had its fair share of interesting tidbits on how these people got into show business, both on camera or behind the scenes. I didn't care at all for the hourly break down of selected days such as "woke up at 5:00, ate an apple for breakfast, went to work for 6:00, had meeting, made phone calls, checked emails, went to lunch at 11:00, etc, etc, etc, etc., till they crawled into bed at night. Made me realize my life is more interesting by far. So I wound up skipping half the book, but if you're someone who really likes current tv shows, this might be for you.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A fun and interesting readBy CustomerI really enjoyed this book. It's presented in a quick, QA format with several creative people in Hollywood, some famous some not so famous. All of them will give you some insight into what it takes to be successful in the creative field, and you'll learn a thing or two about your favorite movies and TV shows also.

The secret to Stan Lee's writing process The story behind Elmo's giggle What's for lunch on the set of The Walking Dead Squirrel training with Johnny Depp Think you know what it takes to get your favorite TV show on the air every week? (You'd be surprised) Or what all those people whose names in the credits of the latest blockbuster actually do? (Including the Supervising Digital Colorist) What better way to find out than from the who's who of Hire Me, Hollywood! Entertainment insiders Mark Scherzer and Keith Fenimore are here to give you a crash course in all things Hollywood through thirty sometimes funny, occasionally racy, and always revealing interviews with such industry experts as: Ryan Randall, Hair Stylist/Makeup Artist (American Idol)Sam Trammell, Actor (Sam Merlotte on HBO's True Blood)Paula Davis, Senior Talent Executive (Conan O'Brien)Mark Steines, Cohost (Entertainment Tonight)Sara Holden, Stunt Woman (House, All My Children, How I Met Your Mother, Iron Man 2)Cecilia Cardwell, On-Set Tutor (Titanic, Little Miss Sunshine, No Ordinary Family)Michael Gelman, Executive Producer (Live! with Regis and Kelly) Whether you've always dreamed of yelling "Action" on a major movie set or you'd be thrilled just to get Matthew McConaughey his morning coffee, this book will give you inside scoop from craft service to the director's chair-and every take in between.
