Hollywood Creative Directory : Hollywood Representation Directory: 39th Edition, Spring 2010 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Hollywood Representation Directory: 39th Edition, Spring 2010:

The Hollywood Representation Directory is the most complete, reliable and comprehensive reference book on Hollywood talent and literary agents and managers. In addition to talent agents and managers the directory has been expanded to include separate tab sections on Entertainment Attorneys, Publicity Companies and Casting Directors - a one-stop shop for representation and getting work in Hollywood. Released every April and October, this directory is a mainstay for New York and Los Angeles producers, studio and network executives, agents and managers, and top talent seeking new representation. There is no other publication available that gives such access to the film and television community of New York and Hollywood. This directory is great for aspiring screenwriters, filmmakers and actors as well as the professional entertainment community. Along with the Hollywood Creative Directory, it is the best tool for navigating the Hollywood industry.
